We've been serving coffee and cocktails since we opened our first Grind in Shoreditch back in 2011. A lot has changed since then, but our commitment to quality, sustainability, and the colour pink remains the same.

We regularly go on and on about how planet-friendly our coffee is, but since you're here for the cocktails you should know that we always take a low-waste approach, sourcing seasonal British produce, reusing ingredients across drinks, and incorporating preserved elements like freeze-dried fruit.

Just in case you needed another reason to feel good about drinking cocktails.
